Andrew Thompson KC

Call: 1991 Silk: 2014

Andrew is a sought-after, specialist commercial litigator, with particular expertise in:

- corporate litigation and arbitration (including shareholders' disputes, joint venture disputes, M&A disputes and claims against directors)
- LLP and partnership disputes
- corporate insolvency
- commercial litigation (including large-scale contractual disputes, fraud and breach of warranty claims)
- professional negligence claims (including lawyers, accountants, valuers and management consultants).

Andrew has been involved in a series of leading cases in these areas, including as lead advocate in BTI v Sequana in the Supreme Court, the critical case on directors' duties in insolvency.

He was rated as one of the 3 most highly regarded silks for company and partnership work in Who's Who Legal 2021 and was the winner of the Chambers and Partners Company/Insolvency Silk Award 2021.

He was also recognized in 2023 as one of the "Top 10 Dynamic UK Commercial Dispute Resolution Lawyers" by Business Today.

Andrew has unrivalled expertise in shareholder disputes; and a well-established practice in LLP law, particularly internal disputes within LLPs (including the leading cases of F&C v Barthelemy and Flanagan v Liontrust) and also in the private equity and hedge fund industry (reported cases including F&C, Bluecrest, Flanagan and Charterhouse Capital).

He has extensive trial experience in the Chancery Division and the Commercial Court and extensive appeal experience in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court, and increasingly appears in arbitrations.

Andrew also undertakes advisory work in the same fields.

Corporate disputes:

Kulkarni v Gwent Holdings Ltd & Anor [2024] EWHC 1357

Appeared for the successful Second Defendant, St Joseph's Independent Hospital Limited ("the Company"). The Claimant, Mr Kulkarni, a shareholder in the Company, dropped his claims against the Company (for breach of a shareholders' agreement, breach of pre-emption rights and rectification of the share register) during the course of closing submissions at the end of a 2 week trial.

BTI v Sequana

10 week trial in 2016 followed by a 5 day appeal to the Court of Appeal in 2018 and a 2 day appeal in the Supreme Court in 2021. The Supreme Court decision in 2022 is the leading case on directors' fiduciary duties where the company is at risk of insolvency and the Court of Appeal decision is the leading case on the application of s423 Insolvency Act 1986 to dividends. Andrew lead advocate in the Supreme Court.

First instance decision also covered the lawfulness of dividends, the compliance of accounts with the statutory and accounting rules as regards provisions and the effect of the rules regarding out of court reductions of capital and solvency statements. See also under Commercial Litigation below.

Carillion

Representing the 5 non-executive directors of Carillion in defending directors' disqualification proceedings brought by the Secretary of State, arising out of the largest ever trading liquidation in the UK. The claims against the non-executive directors relate primarily to the supervision of the business, in the context of allegations of fraudulent accounting against some of the executive directors, against whom applications for disqualification are also made. Potentially the largest and most significant directors' disqualification case in the UK. The Secretary of State abandoned the claim against the non-executive directors the day before a 13-week trial in October 2023 – a major triumph for the whole defence team.

Charterhouse Capital

Unfair prejudice petition in a leading private equity business arising out of alterations to the articles to allow the expropriation of a minority stake by the majority stakeholders, raising complex issues of company law and valuation. Leading case on the alteration of articles. 6 week trial in 2014 and Court of Appeal in 2015. [2015] BCC 574.

Andrew Thompson KC

Burnford v AA

Acting for the AA, defending a claim by minority shareholders in a start-up venture alleging fraud in relation to the entry into a shareholders agreement and breaches of implied contractual obligations of good faith in relation to the subsequent affairs of the company. Successful strike out application on grounds of reflective loss in January 2022, confirmed in the CA in November 2022.

Zedra v THG

Brought in to a long-running shareholders' dispute to pursue an application for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court following the Court of Appeal's unexpected and ground-breaking decision that limitation periods of 6 or 12 years apply to claims under s994 Companies Act 2006.

Asa Group Plc

Dispute between a minority shareholder and the board and administrators in a listed mining company, involving allegations of fraud and an application attacking the validity of the appointment of administrators in response to a takeover offer, on the basis that the directors were improperly motivated when making the appointment by a desire to stymie the takeover offer. A multi-faceted dispute raising issues of company, takeover and insolvency law.

Interactive Technology Corporation v Ferster

Unfair prejudice petition involving allegations of fraud and blackmail and raising issues of 'clean hands'. See also under Commercial Litigation below.

Bankside

Unfair prejudice claim against a trustee of a family discretionary trust holding shares in the company. Successful strike out of the claim. Important issues as to the circumstances in which a passive shareholder may be liable under s994 in respect of wrongdoing by the directors.

Spring Media

Acting for the petitioner in a high value unfair prejudice claim relating to failure to comply with shareholders agreement exit provisions, breaches of fiduciary duty and valuation issues.

St Joseph's Hospital

Acting for the company, running a successful private hospital, defending claims brought by a minority shareholder against it and another shareholder, alleging misallocation of shares (seeking rectification of the register) and breaches of a shareholders' agreement, seeking to enforce the operation of compulsory purchase provisions and alleging breaches of pre-emption rights. 12 day trial in April 2024

Ongoing shareholders' dispute

Acting for the majority shareholders opposing a just and equitable winding up claim in a video gaming business, alleging quasi-partnership and loss of substratum.

Ongoing shareholders' dispute

Acting for minority shareholders in a dispute in relation to the purported exercise of drag rights via rectification and s994 claims.

Confidential arbitration of unfair prejudice claim

LLP and partnership disputes:

Andrew has a well-established practice in LLP law, particularly internal disputes within LLPs, which requires expertise in both company law and traditional partnership law, although LLP law is a distinct area of its own. He brings his vast experience of shareholders' disputes in the company context to this new area, as well as involvement in many of the leading cases in LLP law (including F&C v Barthelemy and Flanagan v Liontrust). LLPs are to a large extent in this context 'companies in disguise'.

F&C v Barthelemy

Dispute within an LLP hedge fund management vehicle, including a trial spanning 9 months in 2010-11, resolving contractual issues and claims under s994 Companies Act 2006. The leading case on rights and duties within LLPs – both contractual and fiduciary. [2012] Ch 613.

Flanagan v Liontrust

Claims for breaches of an LLP agreement via a petition under s994 Companies Act 2006, following expulsion from a fund management business, raising the novel and important issue of whether such agreements can be terminated for repudiatory breach. Leading case on the effect of LLP agreements. Tried January-February 2015. Appeal June 2017.

Ilott v Bluecrest Capital Management

A claim by a member of an LLP on the termination of his membership, and also a claim in partnership, in relation to a fund management business. Trial in 2012, Court of Appeal 2013.
