

clerks@erskinechambers.com

Conor McLaughlin

Call: 2017

Recognised as a 'Rising Star' in company law and as a 'Leading Junior' in insolvency law, Conor is currently instructed by the claimant bank in JSC Privatbank v Kolomoisky & Bogolyubov, a 13-week $1.9bn fraud trial in the Chancery Division due to conclude in November 2023 and one of The Lawyer's 'Top 20 Cases of 2022'. His recent experience includes successfully acting as sole counsel for a company whose funds were misappropriated by a wrongdoing director and being led in a fraudulent and negligent misrepresentation claim in the Commercial Court which settled shortly before trial.

Conor's advisory and contentious company law practice sees him act for shareholders, directors and companies. He has advised and acted in unfair prejudice petitions and disputes about directors' duties and the interpretation of companies' articles of association and shareholders' agreements. He is frequently instructed in relation to applications under the Companies Act 2006 (including reductions of capital, schemes of arrangement, restoration of dissolved companies and applications for rectification of a company's register of members and filings with Companies House).

Conor has also acted in a number of high-profile insolvency matters including the administration of the Arcadia Group (whose brands included Topshop and Topman) and a number of creditor schemes of arrangement. He acted for the Charity Commission in its first and successful application for the winding-up of a charity and frequently acts in contested and uncontested insolvency matters including winding-up and bankruptcy petitions and officeholder applications under the Insolvency Act 1986 and the Insolvency Rules 2016.

Education and Awards

Education

University of Oxford, BA Jurisprudence, First Class Honours

Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich, LL.M, European and International Commercial Law, 'sehr gut'

Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, Licence en droit

Prizes and Scholarships

The Hon. Sir Peter Bristow Scholarship (Middle Temple)

Lord Mansfield Scholarship (Lincoln's Inn)

Conor McLaughlin

Buchanan Prize (Lincoln's Inn)

Advocacy Panel Scholarship (University of Law)

Maximilianeum Scholarship (Balliol College/Stiftung Maximilianeum)

Winning team – 9th ICC Commercial Mediation Competition

Winning team – Gide Loyrette Nouel French Moot (March 2011)

Pathfinders Award (Balliol College)

Brackenbury Exhibition (Balliol College)