

clerks@erskinechambers.com

Carleen Sobczyk

Call: England and Wales: 2022

Carleen is fast developing a commercial, company and insolvency law practice.

Upon obtaining tenancy Carleen undertook a three-month secondment in the corporate/M&A department at Slaughter and May, where she was involved in a variety of significant corporate and private client transactions.

She completed a further three-month secondment at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, where she worked on one of the highest value insurance claims ever brought in the English courts, gaining extensive experience in the global insurance and reinsurance industries.

Carleen joins Chambers after a decade in investment banking and asset management, including as equities portfolio manager at Amundi in Paris.

Carleen obtained a Triple First Class in her undergraduate degree at the University of Cambridge, ranking second in her year and winning numerous college and university prizes. She is multilingual.

Carleen was awarded the highest scholarships for both the GDL and Bar course years by Gray's Inn.

Education and Awards

Education

BVS – City, University of London (Merit)

LLM Law Conversion – BPP University (Distinction)

MA (History of Art) – Birkbeck, University of London (Distinction)

MA (Modern & Medieval Languages) – Gonville & Caius College, University of Cambridge (Triple First Class)

Prizes and Awards

Bedingfield Scholarship, Gray's Inn

David Karmel Scholarship, Gray's Inn

Dean's Scholarship for Academic Excellence, City Law School

Dean of Law School Scholarship, BPP University

Gonville & Caius College Senior Scholarship

The Ian and Marjory McFarlane Prize in French

The Royal Dutch Embassy Prize

The Frederick John Stopp Prize for Modern Languages